Report on “Yoga Training Camp”

Date: 26.04.2022

Organised by: NSS unit I & II and the Sports Committee

No. of Participants: Fifty two

Following the success of the previous session, the NSS unit in collaboration with the Sports Committee of our college organized another Yoga Training Camp on April 26, 2022. The objective was to continue promoting the practice of yoga among students and staff, further building on the skills and techniques introduced in the earlier session.

The camp was once again conducted by Principal Sir who led the participants through a more advanced series of yoga postures and breathing techniques. The session focused on deepening the practice, with an emphasis on mindfulness and the therapeutic aspects of yoga. Participants were encouraged to listen to their bodies and practice at their own pace, ensuring that everyone, regardless of their experience level, could benefit from the session.

In addition to physical exercises, the instructor also discussed the philosophical aspects of yoga, including its roots in ancient Indian traditions and its relevance in contemporary life. This holistic approach helped participants gain a deeper understanding of yoga beyond just the physical postures.

The event concluded with a guided meditation session, fostering a sense of inner peace and balance among the participants. The second Yoga Training Camp was met with enthusiastic participation, reinforcing the growing interest in yoga as a valuable tool for maintaining physical and mental health.

Report on the NSS activity “Classroom Cleaning”

Date: 13.05.2022

Organised by: NSS unit I & II

No. of Participants: Thirty Five

On May 13, 2022, the NSS unit of Polba Mahavidyalaya organized a Classroom Cleaning drive as part of its ongoing efforts to promote cleanliness and hygiene on campus. The event was in line with the Swachh Bharat Abhiyan and aimed at creating a cleaner and healthier learning environment for all students.

NSS volunteers, along with other students, participated actively in the drive. The cleaning activities included sweeping, dusting, and organizing classroom furniture. Special attention was given to ensuring that all classrooms were free of litter and that desks, chairs, and windows were properly cleaned. The participants were divided into teams, each assigned to specific classrooms, ensuring that the entire college building was covered in the cleaning effort.

The event also served as an opportunity to raise awareness about the importance of maintaining cleanliness in educational institutions. The NSS Program Officer addressed the volunteers, highlighting the impact of a clean environment on students' well-being and academic performance.

The Classroom Cleaning drive was a resounding success, with all participants showing great enthusiasm and commitment to the cause. The event not only resulted in a visibly cleaner campus but also instilled a sense of responsibility among students to keep their surroundings clean and tidy.

Report on the event 'Thalassemia test (Red Ribbon Club)'

Date: 31.03.2023

No. of Students: Fifty-one

The NSS units of Polba Mahavidyalaya, in collaboration with the Red Ribbon Club, organized a successful Thalassemia Test drive, with 51 volunteers participating.

Narugopal Kaibarta, Teacher-in-Charge, inaugurated the event, highlighting the critical role of early detection and awareness in preventing and managing thalassemia.

Students participated in various activities, including organizing the testing process, delivering educational talks on the impact of thalassemia, and assisting healthcare professionals. The event featured sessions on the causes, risks, and prevention of thalassemia, enhancing students' understanding and appreciation of the importance of proactive health measures.

The drive concluded with a reflection session, where participants shared their insights and committed to raising awareness about thalassemia and supporting ongoing health initiatives within their communities.

Some glimpses of 'NSS Special Camp of NSS unit-1&2 at Uchai Primary School'

Overall, the Thalassemia Test drive organized by the Red Ribbon Club was highly successful, deepening students' understanding of the importance of early detection and health awareness. The NSS units extend their gratitude to all participants and contributors for making the event impactful and inspiring a greater commitment to health education and preventive care within the campus community.
