A. Barenjee 26.2.23. ENVIRONMENTAL SCIENCE: PURVIEW & OVERVIEW

Dr. Pintu Banerjee Associate Professor Department of Botany Govt. General Degree College, Singur

Abstract:

Everything which surrounds us is collectively known as 'Environment'. The science which covers different aspects of environment, its structure, functions, its quality and the maintenance of its quality including conservation of living and non-living constituents is 'Environmental Science'. It's a very vast subject, multidisciplinary in nature. Legal and politics related to environment locally and globally comes under the purview of Environmental Science. Therefore, each and every component of the environment, biotic and abiotic with the interactions, inters and intra relationships between them as well as their maintenance are discussed under the present title: 'Environmental Science: Purview & Overview'.
